Fall Kills Actress Friend of Hopkins

15 Floors to Death—Dorothy Hale, beautiful actress-friend of WPA Administrator Harry Hopkins, placed a "Do Not Disturb" sign on her door and plunged from her 16th floor hotel room to death in New York today. Hopkins said he was "deeply shocked."

JAPS TAKE CANTON IN RECORD THRUST

CANTON, China, Oct. 21 (INS)—Japanese troops, on the crest of a speedy surge that carried an army of 40,000 20 miles overnight, today tramped into the all-but-deserted streets of Canton.

Exiled 'King' in Air Sortie Into France

PARIS, Oct. 21 (AP)—The Count of Paris, son of the Duke of Guise, pretender to the French throne, flew to the vicinity of Paris today in defiance of the law and issued a manifesto calling upon France to restore the monarchy for "her salvation."

Soon after handing the manifesto to newspapermen, he met him at a farmhouse near Paris, the Count took off for Belgium where he lives in exile with his father.

It was the first time the 30-year-old Count, who was born in Belgium, had set foot on the soil of the land his ancestors ruled.

Under the law he is punishable by long imprisonment for his act.

Operatives of the Surete Nationale, long have been detailed to watch him and his father even in Belgium, and his success in landing safely in France caused great excitement.

"I ask you to keep our meeting these secret," the count said to the newspapermen.

"My declaration," he said, "will make a greater appeal to all Frenchmen because I am reading it on soil of my native land, which is sacred to me by law."

Roosevelt Plans New Battle For Reorganization

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Oct. 21 (INS)—Congress should delegate to the administration authority to reorganize the federal government, President Roosevelt declared today.

The President, in serving notice that he intended to continue his fight for reorganization, pointed out that Congress had delegated such authority to the judicial branch of government at the last session.

Acceptance of the terms of the wage-hour act has been such the President also declared, as to give administration officials hope that many employers engaged solely in intra-state industry will voluntarily accept the terms imposed on interstate industry.

The President noted the widespread return to work in the auto industry as a very delightful fact and said such increases in private employment would help hold down WPA spending.

GEORGE O. DRAPER DEAD

Milford friends learned today of the death last night in San Pedro, Cal., of George Otis Draper, 71, a native of Hopedale and a son of the late William F. Draper, one-time ambassador to Italy.

N. E. Winners In Sweeps Draw

Lady Luck's bright golden smile beamed on a steadily growing number of Greater Boston and New England winners today, as the 25th drawing in the Irish Hospital sweepstakes was begun in historic Mansion House, Dublin.

Cambridge, Somerville, Boston, Ludlow and Leominster residents were among the first to get starting horse tickets giving them a chance at top prizes of $150,000, $75,000 and $50,000.

Not until the Cesarewitch, one of England's great turf classics, is run off next Wednesday, October 26, will holders of tickets on running horses know whether they are in the "big money" or whether they merely get the $2187 paid on also-rans and non-starting horses.

DREAMS OF WEALTH

But New Englanders with horses given even outside odds to win, place or show were already dreaming dreams of wealth today. Among those with rosy prospects was John Markunis, 53, a Somerville meat cutter living in Elm Street, Cambridge.

A widower, with a married daughter and a son in Rindge Technical High School, Cambridge, headed by tanks, the hosts of Nippon crashed through flimsy, hastily-constructed outer defenses of the great southern metropolis with the firing of only a few shots.

The troops immediately deployed throughout the eastern section of the city, wounding out snipers and consolidating positions until the main body of Emperor Hirohito's army arrived.

STUNNED BY SPEED

Foreign authorities stunned by the speed of the Japanese advance, threw up hasty sand-bag fortifications around Shamen Island, Canton's island quarter, where the United States consulate is located.

French and British sailors, armed with machine guns, manned Shamen's pill-boxes. These quick measures were taken not through dread of the on-marching Japanese, but because of fear that the remaining Chinese inhabitants of Canton, thrown into a panic by the Japanese advance, might flee to Shamen for safety.

As the Japanese in three columns marched from their landing spot on Bias Bay, 80 miles to the east, in only 10 days, Canton's population was cut from its normal 500,000 to only 100,000. Tonight streams and highways leading to the interior were swarming with refugees.

BLOW UP FACTORIES

Little time was left for the Chinese to carry out their traditional "scorched earth policy," but shortly after the Japanese vanguard marched into Canton at 2:30 p. m. a thunderous explosion destroyed the famous Pearl River bridge, leading into the heart of Canton.

A power plant and several factories also were blasted. After Canton is fully occupied, it is believed the Japanese will make a similar drive against Swatow, another important seaport farther north.

W. R. Hearst In Radio Reply To Churchill

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (INS)—Winston Churchill's invitation to the United States to join with France and England for a concerted drive against dictatorship in European lands will be answered by William Randolph Hearst in a nationwide broadcast and international re-broadcast on Saturday night at 8 o'clock, E. S. T., over station WJZ and the Blue Network of NBC stations, it was announced here today.

Speaking from San Simeon, Calif., Mr. Hearst will air his views on the unexpected and surprising invitation which was broadcast direct to the United States recently by Great Britain's former first lord of the admiralty.

Mr. Hearst's address will be heard throughout the United States, then rebroadcast by short wave to foreign countries in English, Italian, Spanish, German, French and Portuguese.

Churchill in his radio speech declared that the United States "could not wash its hands" of Europe's dictatorship problem. He declared that this country "before it is too late" must be found on the side of France and England.

The radio address tomorrow night by Mr. Hearst will be heard locally throughout New England over Stations WBZ and WBZA of Boston and Springfield at 8 p. m.

Dorothy Hale's Trail of Tragedy Ends:

Plunge Kills Actress Friend of Hopkins

NEW YORK, Oct. 21—Dressed in a gold-ornamented black evening gown and wearing a corsage of tea roses, attractive Dorothy Hale, film actress and dabbler in the theater, plunged to death today from her 16th floor apartment in the Hampshire House, exclusive hotel overlooking Central Park.

'Model Boy' Gets Life As Killer

Word was received here today that Gary Ames, 14-year-old "model schoolboy," of Wilmington, had been sentenced to life imprisonment at Kearney, Neb., for the second degree murder and mutilation of a transient worker.

He and Don Galloway, 22, Ohio steel worker, were charged with shooting Edward J. Billings, Chicago immigrant, in a freight car near the Nebraska city.

PLEAD SECOND DEGREE

In court today both extracted pleas of guilty to first degree murder and pleaded guilty to the lesser charge.

Galloway also was sentenced to a life term.

Young Ames is the son of Mrs. Hannah Ryder, twice widowed, of Wilmington.

She lives with three other members of the family in a two-story four-room shack off the main highway near the Wilmington-Burlington line.

Before Gary left home about six weeks ago he daily assisted in the housework, according to Mrs. Ryder, and took care of the children when she was out earning money for their support.

The last word received from him before his arrest on the murder charge on October 16, she said, was a postcard from Wyoming describing his work as a potato picker at $5 a day.

PRaised BY TEACHER

Miss Margaret Delaney, eighth grade teacher at Wilmington junior high school, was shocked and surprised when informed of the arrest of the boy in Nebraska.

"He was a very good student and a wonderful boy," she wired to the authorities there when she heard Gary was in trouble. "On the few occasions when he was absent from school it usually was to care for his mother or the children."

$10,000 Contest Winners

Latest prize winners in the ten thousand dollar National Hearst Comic Weekly-Puck Puzzle Contest, appearing weekly in the Boston Sunday Advertiser are announced today on Page 38.

She was the widow of Gardner Hale, Chicago artist who was killed in 1931 when his automobile went over a 500-foot cliff in California.

She was a friend of Harry Hopkins, WPA administrator, whom she met through James Roosevelt. Seen several times with Hopkins, their engagement was rumored but was denied last summer.

Friends of Hopkins, who was secluded at the home of President Roosevelt, said he was "deeply shocked" by Mrs. Hale's death. They did not comment on the engagement reports, but said Hopkins and the actress had been "close personal friends." The WPA administrator himself made no comment. Hopkins wife, Barbara, has been dead a year.

APPEARED GAY

Only a few years ago Mrs. Hale was described by a Hollywood producer as "a great movie find," but she appeared in only a few pictures, one of which was "Catherine the Great."

She was cast in a small stage role with Fred and Adele Astaire and last season had a small part in "Russet Mantle," a play which had a short Broadway life. She was also in the chorus of "Lady Be Good," her first stage appearance.

Margaret Case, of Vogue Magazine, one of her closest friends, said she was with Mrs. Hale on the night she died and that she appeared gay and happy and gave not the slightest indication

'Perfect Mate' Airs Wife's Love Tryst

CHICAGO, Oct. 21 (AP)—Rudolph Sikora, the "perfect husband," told a jury hearing his murder trial today that his attractive wife fell in love with his rival during a torrid tryst in an office vault.

Resuming his witness-stand story of the events that led up to the slaying of Edward Solomon last August 22, the defendant said Mrs. Sikora made a detailed confession of the incident.

"She told me it all started last March 14," Sikora related in a calm voice. "Solomon went into the vault in the office where they worked together. He called Margaret in. She said Solomon pulled her to him, held her close and kissed her and kissed her and kissed her."

"She said she couldn't help herself."

A capt crowd strained to hear every word as Defense Counsel W. W. Smith elicited the tragic story, detail by detail.

"What did you say when she told you that?" the attorney inquired.

"I told her I couldn't understand it," Sikora, a mild-looking man of 33, replied. "She also told me of hotel meetings with Solomon when they were together for hours."

Mrs. Sikora insisted during the conversation, Sikora added, that she never had been intimate with Solomon although she said "she didn't expect me to believe that."

Pupils Win Teacher Back

A petition by parents of children at Nichols School, Everett, to return Miss Sally MacArthur, seventh grade teacher to the school was granted today by the Everett School Committee.

Miss MacArthur had been transferred to the Adams School, because of her popularity at the Nichols School the committee revoked its order.

AUTO LOOTED

Jerre Hickey, an investigator for the city solicitor's office in Lynn, reported to Lynn police today that while he was in a house on Wheeler street someone jimmied the door to his car and stole a brief case containing various data.

Letter Reveals Nazi Lessons for U. S. Spies

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (AP)—A cryptically-worded letter signed "N. Speilmann," the purported alias of the head of the German secret service, was disclosed today as a sort of beginner's manual on "how to become a good spy."

The letter, made public by Assistant U. S. Attorney Lester C. Dunigan in connection with the trial of three alleged Nazi spies in federal court, gave "little hints" on "European business procedure."

Addressed to Guenther Gustav Rumrich, 37, former U. S. Army sergeant who has confessed his guilt in the spy plot and testified for the government, the letter referred to a sum of $300—the price Rumrich testified he asked for carrying out a plot to forge President Roosevelt's signature on bogus White House stationery to gain possession of secret plans for the U. S. Navy aircraft carriers Yorktown and Enterprise.

"DEAR FRIEND"

"Dear friend," it began. "In your favor, I must call your attention to a few business mistakes."

"You must above all things keep strictly separate the representations of the various fronts. There exists in Europe a certain amount of business discretion because one firm will never tell the other what or where it has purchased.

"For this reason, you must also accept this method, because whatever I purchase for my firm does not necessarily concern any other firm."

"Only I or my representative Jenni are responsible for these matters."

"Fraulein Johanna ('Jenni') Hofmann, 26, red-haired alleged 'payoff' agent and courier for the spy ring, is one of the three persons on trial.

"Also, you must never state a fixed price because this might lead to many misunderstandings," the letter continued. "I shall always name to you a price whatever the merchandise is worth to me, and you can then

J. V. Connolly Honored For Service to Jews

Joseph V. Connolly, general manager of the Hearst newspapers, today was announced as the recipient of one of the outstanding Jewish awards for public and patriotic service—the Advocate Carnation, awarded by the Boston Jewish Advocate.

Mr. Connolly receives the award for his "earnest call for a national crusade against the rising tide of paganism, totalitarianism, racism and anti-Semitism," which he voiced in his address last week before the national Eucharistic Congress of the Roman Catholic Church in New Orleans.

As a recipient of the Advocate Carnation, Mr. Connolly becomes one of a group of distinguished scholars, churchmen and other leaders who have likewise, in the past, received the award, the highest honor known to New England Jewry.

PRaised in Editorial.

These include Cardinal O'Connell, Dr. Everett R. Clinchy, national director of the Conference of Jewish and Christians, President James B. Conant of Harvard, Dr. Daniel L. Marsh, president of Boston University, Congressman John W. McCormack, Bishop William Lawrence, Episcopal Bishop Emeritus of Massachusetts, Bishop Henry K. Sherrill, and Rabbi Stephen S. Wise.

Editorially, The Jewish Advocate, of which Alexander Brin, New England Jewish leader, is editor and publisher, says:

"At a time when the flames of bigotry and intolerance and tyranny flare high, the masterful address of Mr. Connolly before such an extraordinary event in the realm of religious thought, breathing such a broad spirit of humanity and courage, has a direct message to all those, regardless of race, color or creed, who cherish the ideals of liberty and freedom and tolerance and justice.

"Catholics, Protestants and Jews all have a common foe to battle. The objectives at stake transcend minor differences which distinguish the major religions, making it imperative that all lovers of political, religious and personal freedom join forces to emerge triumphant and the battle front of freedom, peace and social justice.

AWARDED CARNATION

"From the point of view of earnestness, sincerity, vital thought, solid information, profound reflection and mature conclusion, the address of Mr. Connolly will meet with a hearty response by all lovers of liberty, all seekers of truth and all friends of humanity.

"He truly invoked the mighty voice of the Holy See, from whom has come the most vigorous challenge to and protest against all forms of religious and racial persecution.

"Mr. Connolly thus joins the goodly company of those great men who since the rise of the new paganism in the various corners of the globe have dared courageously and fearlessly to expose the cause of justice and truth and proclaim brotherhood in a world that is tending toward brotherlessness.

"Thoughtful Americans are grateful to you, Mr. Connolly, for your admirably phrased thesis. The carnation is a symbol of our appreciation for your scholarly, dispassionate words."

Closes His Sawmills Because of Law

EARLE, Ark., Oct. 21 (AP)—Luther Wallin, operator of sawmills here and at Columbus, Miss., said today lumber plants cannot operate profitably under the wage-hour law and that he is suspending operations at both places tomorrow night.

The mill here is Earle's only industry except cotton gins. It has been operated about 20 years. Wallin said about 100 men would be affected here. They receive from 15 to 75 cents an hour and work about 40 hours a week while the wage-hour act fixes a 25-cent wage minimum and 44-hour maximum.

Smith appealed to relief authorities for money to pay for a health examination at Peter Bent Brigham Hospital. Police said he raised the order and substituted "clothing."

New Army Gun Gives U. S. Edge

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (INS)—Details of a new semi-automatic rifle to be used by the United States army as standard equipment in a national magazine.

The new rifle, developed by John C. Garand of the government arsenal in Springfield, Mass., fires five times as fast and has 10 to 15 per cent less recoil than the old Springfield rifle which it replaces.

The Garand rifle, it is claimed, is 12 to 14 per cent more accurate than the Springfield, and will give the American doughboy a five-to-one advantage over any other soldier in the world.

BOMBERS KILL 24

BARCELONA, Oct. 21 (INS)—Twenty-four persons, including twelve women and five children, were killed today and 14 persons were wounded when two insurgent planes raided Barcelona, according to a government announcement.

Court Kills Spy Widow's $50,000 Suit

The $50,000 breach of contract suit brought by Mrs. Irene F. Nugent, comely New York widow, against Phillip Loving Reed, millionaire social registerite, was thrown out of court today.

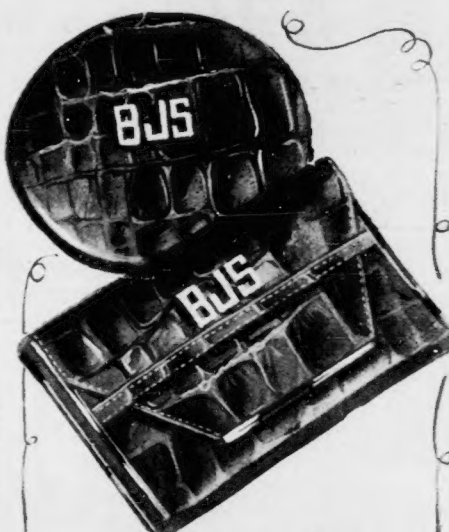

As Mrs. Nugent languished in Dedham jail on a charge of presumption of perjury, Judge E. Dwight Fullerton in Dedham district court ruled in favor of Reed.

Judge Fullerton said: "I am convinced all the evidence offered by Mrs. Nugent is without foundation in fact."

Mrs. Nugent alleged Reed employed her as a sort of business spy to find out things about other concerns.

She is held in $2000 bail on presumption of perjury.

2 Bank Bandits Trailed in Hub

Police today were seeking for questioning two former Dorchester youths, with criminal records, in connection with the $650 holdup in the Upham's Corner Co-operative Bank.

The two youths were described by Mrs. Dorothy G. Coffey, cashier, who was alone in the bank at the time of the robbery, yesterday afternoon. The suspects were seen recently loitering in the vicinity of Upham's Corner, according to information received by police of Fields Corner station.

Officers were combing South End and Back Bay cafes in search of the youths.

Two other suspects were taken into custody but released. The hatless bandits, each carrying a revolver, entered the tiny basement bank, located on Columbia road, and announced:

"This is a holdup."
One of the men climbed an eight foot grille and looted the open safe.

The cashier was forced into a closet and the two bandits fled.

End Waterfront Truck Strike

Waterfront truck drivers went back to work this morning after the State board of arbitration had settled a 24-hour tieup.

The embargo was called by John M. Sullivan, president of the Truck Drivers Union, No. 25, as a result of a jurisdictional dispute with the International Longshoremen's Association over who should have the membership of workers in a South Boston warehouse.

'Frankie and Johnny'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (INS)—John L. Lewis, CIO chairman, attending the play, "I'd Rather Be Right," was spotted in the audience by George M. Cohan, who takes the part of the President in the production.

"Make friends," said Cohan, "now let us say something about somebody in the audience. Back there I see John L. Lewis."

He paused for a second and added:

"Frankie and Johnny are sweethearts."

The audience—including Lewis—roared.

Herriot Seen Hope for Debt Payment to U. S.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (INS)—The return to office of Edouard Herriot, former foreign minister, was viewed by State Department officials today as the only circumstance likely to bring an offer by France to resume payments on its defaulted war debt to the United States.

Except for Herriot, officials believed, no French statesman has the fortitude to propose and attempt to carry through negotiations entailing a further drain upon already depleted French financial resources.

Officials conceded that a new settlement of the $4,000,000,000 French obligation, if ratified by Congress, would exempt France from provisions of the Johnson Act, which forbids debtor nations, their political subdivisions or nationals, to float loans in the United States.

The French newspaper "Agence Economique et Financiere," in forecasting a debt settlement after the November congressional elections, said that step would open the way for renewed French borrowing in the American market.

Officials said the presumption that Congress would approve a debt refunding plan, entailing the borrowing of American funds to make the payments, was based upon "a misconception of American public opinion."

The administration, officials added, considers such a scheme would be fore-doomed to rejection by Congress.

Herriot, whose stand for "honorable settlement" of the French debt was a factor in his loss of the foreign ministry, has been talked of as successor to French President Le Brun.

Curley Claims West Support

By ALFRED D. WHELTON

SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 21.—Voters of western Massachusetts for years have voted Republican through habit, but are rapidly turning to the Democratic party for solution of their problems, former Governor James M. Curley declared today as he continued his "western" swing with the entire Democratic ticket.

"Our problems and your problems are many and it is clearly the fault of the Republican party in power during the year after year they have controlled the Legislature," Curley told large gatherings in this city, Chicopee, Westfield and Holyoke.

The Democratic nominee for a second term as Governor and the party candidates for the other major state offices included in their tour a trip through flood-stricken sections between Pittsfield and Springfield.

"Out here in this section, people with whom I have talked in stores, on sidewalks, in hotels and in various other meeting places can't understand why the Republican party hasn't done something to relieve flood conditions—yet they vote Republican by habit," Curley said.

CONDITION CHANGING

"That condition," he added, "is changing now. There is a huge revolt in Republican ranks because more and more are beginning to realize it is the Democrat who gets things done."

"The Republican party has had it in their power for the last 100 years to end floods in this district and they didn't do it. We must do it and we are going to do it."

Curley's tour of the flood-stricken sections was part of a campaign to win the support of western voters for the Democratic ticket.

The tour was the first of a series of trips that Curley and the other Democratic nominees will make throughout the state.

"Republicans in convention didn't know that a report has been available at the state house since I left office after the 1916 floods. It was compiled with the co-operation of army engineers and is there for them to peruse. They didn't even know it was there. Did you ever hear of such stupidity?" he asked.

At Holyoke Curley was told, he said, when he announced he had obtained assistance from Jesse Jones Reconstruction Finance Corporation that $250,000 of federal funds would soon arrive to return to work in the flood-stricken areas.

Democrats 'Tax' Liquor Stores, Herter Charges

Representative Christian A. Herter, Republican, charged today that the Democrats were "taxing" liquor stores $200 and $250 for the party campaign fund.

He alleged Democratic leaders were conducting a whispering campaign, giving the impression that if the Republicans won with Dalton, they would take over all the package stores.

With that argument, he added, they were terrifying the package store owners into contributing.

Herter's charge was made at a meeting of the Republican finance committee at the Hotel Continental in Cambridge.

Later in his speech, the representative, who is being boomed for the speakership of the House, said:

"The Democrats are living off the taxpayers and contractors, and that is the kind of rivalry we have to meet."

Seeking to clear Republicans of the charge of being economic royalists, he declared $200,000 was used up in the Democratic primary while Republican expenditures were much smaller.

Pope Rebukes Nazi Attack on Vienna Cardinal

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Oct. 21 (AP)—A new rebuke was added today to the list of papal condemnations of the Nazi attack on Austria. Pope Pius XI, in a statement issued today, rebuked the Nazi attack on Austria. It was reported by the Vatican that the Pope had said that the attack on Austria was a "crime against the human race" and that the Pope would continue to work for the restoration of peace in Europe.

HENDAYE, France, Oct. 21 (AP)—Reports from government sources indicated today that plans were being made for an offensive designed to drive the Spanish forces from the frontiers of the Republic. The offensive was expected to be launched in the near future.

General Jose Milla, commander in chief of the government's central front, and General Matallana, his chief of staff, returned to Madrid after a series of conferences with commanders at Barcelona and Valencia.

'In-Law' Divorce Plea Is Studied

NEW BEDFORD, Oct. 21 (AP)—Maurice Harris today had under advisement the issue of a divorce from Herman A. Mendes, 35, of Mattapan, after a contested hearing in which "spiritualism" and "in-laws" were cited as major stumbling blocks.

Mendes was charged Mrs. Angelina Mendes of Wrentham, R. I., with desertion, but the judge, in his ruling, found that the couple had been separated for some time.

Snyder Wants Ruth Happy

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21. (AP)—The ashes of a young man who died in a plane crash today were buried in a cemetery with a view of the ocean, a friend of the family said today.

The young man, who was a member of the Los Angeles chapter of the United States Marine Corps, was killed in a crash landing of his plane on Oct. 15.

His name, Snyder, was not given in the report.

His friend, who was not named, said that Snyder was a very happy and cheerful young man.

"It's all over now," Snyder continued. "The little lady has hung one on me. But it doesn't matter now because all of the old times are dead—the torch has gone out. I only hope Mr. Asher-man gets well and they find happiness together."

When Snyder was killed, he was a member of the United States Marine Corps, and was serving in the Philippines.

His friend said that Snyder was a very happy and cheerful young man.

Wife Found In Cellar Cell

MARSHFIELD, N. J., Oct. 21. (AP)—Charged with keeping his wife unlawfully and feloniously imprisoned in the basement of their home, Alfred C. Reed, vice president of the Shell Tooling Chair Company, today awaited a hearing next Monday.

Reed was held in $500 bail after Police Chief Charles Miller told of going to the defendant's home on October 5 and finding Mrs. Reed sitting on a straight-back chair in the corner of a dark, damp basement room, where conditions were very unsanitary.

Miller testified he learned of the woman's alleged incarceration from a man who had talked to her through a grating.

Lindy Hopes Nazi Flights to Resume

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21. (AP)—Charles A. Lindbergh today expressed his hope that German airplane men would cross the Atlantic again to regular flights to America.

The aviator inspected the new dirigible LZ-126 at Friedrichshafen and visited the nearby Dornier airplane works, where he flew several planes.

$30,000 Blaze In Canton Mill

FIRE did $30,000 damage to the three-story sheddy mill of the A. E. Canton Company in Canton today and for a time threatened a number of nearby tenements.

Available fire-fighting equipment in the town was summoned to extinguish the blaze. The fire fighters succeeded in keeping the flames from spreading to the other nearby structures.

2300-POUND PIE

WENATCHEE, Wash., Oct. 21. (AP)—It took a tractor to pull this little pie from the oven. The pie weighing 2300 pounds and 16 feet in diameter was made from a ton of apples, 100 pounds of flour and 10 pounds of butter.

Beat, Rob N. H. Man in Boston

After reporting the matter to police, Healy came for more than two hours in and around the West End district with police in company.

While going through Scollay Square, the victim, 5 feet 10 inches tall and two West End youths were taken into custody.

Everett Woman, Secretary Sees 71, Attacked By Prowler

A 71-year-old Everett woman was dragged from her bed early today, attacked and left unconscious on the floor by an intruder who gained entrance to her second floor apartment by scaling a drainpipe.

The victim is Mrs. Nellie Free of Alfred Court, who was treated at Whidden Memorial Hospital for her injuries after she regained consciousness and called out to neighbors.

After hearing her story, police arrested Leon Meade, 31-year-old Negro, who is a neighbor on near by Thicket street.

Meade was arraigned in Maiden Court on a charge of breaking and entering and attack and held in $20,000 bail.

According to the State Department of Correction, Meade has a criminal record dating back to 1920 when he was only 11 years old.

Department files showed that he served time in 1931 for an assault and in 1933 was sentenced to state prison for a 2 1/2 to 3-year term for night-time breaking and entering.

Commissioner of Correction Arthur T. Lyman said Meade had been adjudged a mental defective before he was paroled in 1935.

It Must Never Happen Again

By Carl Anderson

Du Pont Visions Greater Era

A more prosperous America than ever before was visualized by Lamont du Pont, Delaware industrialist, on the simple condition that politics be divorced from both taxation and labor legislation.

The appealing forecast was made before members of the Associated Industries of Massachusetts at their annual dinner last night at the Copley Plaza Hotel.

The speaker, head of the largest chemical company in the world, declared there are now more than 175,000 taxing units in the nation, and that there should be a co-ordination and simplification of the tax system.

of dollars in taxes to support the services of government during the nine years 1930-34.

Take Politics Out of Relief

Citizens, before you vote, ask these questions of all candidates for Congress:

"Do you stand for the principle that there must be no political control or influence in the handling of relief funds, pump-priming money, agricultural benefit money or social security money?

"Do you favor the principle of having all such public expenditures supervised by a non-partisan, non-political board employing civil service personnel?

"Do you pledge yourself to work for the proper measures to put these principles into practical operation?"

PROGRESS PAUSES

Progress is pausing today before a paradox. Du Pont said the need for new capital is greater, perhaps, than at any other time in our history and the will to create that capital—by saving—is actually existent. But the two are not permitted to meet and mate.

The principle of a fair reward commensurate with the effort and the risk is being undermined by attacks on earnings, by diversion of the national income into non-productive channels and by tax policies adopted in the name of reform that make investment a hazard rather than an investment.

TOO MUCH POWER

It is a power, he said, "conferred by all the people which affects the lives of all the people, and it should be exercised in the interests of all the people in full daylight."

"Therefore, I see only one ultimate solution—taxation should be taken out of politics."

Lower costs for all materials that enter into living.

Maintenance of high wages and productivity of all existing goods and development of wholly new materials and new goods through scientific research and invention.

Creation of new tools of new equipment and new power facilities that is new capital added to what we have now, in order to provide full employment to this and future generations.

DEFENDS BUSINESS

The industrial system which has been charged with failures and impotence paid almost by billions of dollars in taxes to support the services of government during the nine years 1930-34.

Dies Links War Talk to France

By GEORGE ROTHWELL BROWN
Special to Boston Evening American

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21—Winston Churchill's recent radio broadcast, inviting American participation in European politics, is regarded here in congressional quarters as being closely allied with the feelers from Paris, for a readjustment of the French war debts.

In the opinion of students of foreign politics, Paris and London are not interested in the same thing. The United States is their trouble with the Communists.

What they want is the return of their money and their money. Churchill's speech was a move to get their money back.

This view was expressed today in an interview by Representative Martin Dies of Texas, one of the House committee members investigating un-American activities.

"I interpret Winston Churchill's radio speech as the opening gun in a barrage of propaganda that soon will flood this country."

"England, France and Russia would like very much to have us fight their battles for them. They already have begun a well-financed campaign to enlist our sympathy and build up in America a feeling that it is a duty on our part to aid them in event of war."

"From all the propaganda Russia has distributed in the United States, through the Communist party and their front organizations, we are led to believe that she is the strongest nation on the face of the earth. This being true, I am in favor of letting Russia fight out her own battle with Germany."

"England, France and Russia, with three-fourths of the globe under their domination, should be able to defend themselves.

"The last war left us with a crushing debt, a prolonged depression, thousands of wounded veterans and many heart-broken mothers and fathers. We did not make the world safe for democracy and the conditions we sought to correct are worse today than they were in 1917."

"If we permit ourselves to be drawn into any entangling alliances it will mean the suicide of this republic. Instead of talking about helping any European country, I think it is time to insist that they begin to pay us what they owe us."

'Don't Bungle Pact,' Britisher Warns

LONDON, Oct. 21 (INS)—Viscount Simon, Liberal member of the House of Commons, warned the House of Commons today that a speech by Winston Churchill, the present defense minister, for an Anglo-American trade pact, was a "bungle."

"The British people have been eagerly awaiting the conclusion of a trade agreement with the United States, whose friendship and economic cooperation is vital to Britain."

From Bad to Worse, Mebbe?

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (U.P.)—Though the pessimists are many these days who say that the time and fall of civilization is at hand, Mr. George Whitten and his 1933 world's fair will produce a gadget which should prove amazingly that this earthly ball of mud is still progressing, upward and upward.

Imaginative futurists have often concerned themselves with thinking machines, but it was left to Dr. Joseph C. Hagen, medical director of the fair, to supervise the installation of machines guaranteed (for your money back) to extricate you from that comatose condition known as drunkenness.

The idea is that if you feel you have quaffed much too much of the cheery fluid that intoxicates and your head begins a new step flight to nowhere, run, don't walk to the nearest sobering-up station at the fair.

Dr. Hagen explained today that the method has been thoroughly tested at Bellevue Hospital and the revived merry-makers need not worry about later ill effects from the treatment.

The patient is taken in hand of a respirator which sets to work he is fed 90 per cent air and 10 per cent carbon dioxide. The length of the cure depends upon the amount of liquid one has guzzled. Two hours, explained the good medicine, is perhaps the maximum. Then the patient may go and sin some more.

The cute thing about a sobering-up station is that it should cost a citizen no more than $5 to have one for a pet around the house.

President Eyes Housing Plan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (U.P.)—President Hoover today announced that he had approved a plan for the construction of 10,000 new houses in the United States. The plan was approved by the President's Housing Committee, which was created last year to study the housing problem in the United States.

CORNELL-PENN STATE: When Ezra Cornell founded his school in Ithaca, N.Y., in 1855, he spread his hands wide and said, "Let there be an institution where anyone may acquire superior learning on any subject." Hence in 1936 Cornell was called "Some husky scholars were merely related to incidentally with his arrival and the learning picked up immediately. One guess of transparent thinness for Cornell."

Down from the storied New Hampshire hills roared all Dartmouth today for the annual football frolic in Harvard Stadium.

Hanover was a ghost village. 44 students, professors and the good townsfolk alike headed for Cambridge to Wai Hoo themselves dizzy for the conquering Indians they've already tagged national champions.

Doc Haines and his coaching staff moved as they passed over the road for passing the road and a game after the game.

Doctor!

A jovial M. D. attending the Doctor's Convention recently at the Waldorf Astoria, "made a call" at our Fifth Avenue Store to replenish his wardrobe.

Laughing about our Indian Summer he said:

"Well, there's not much we doctors can do about the weather, but I do know what to prescribe the moment it turns cool or starts to rain -- a Rogers Peet Scotch Mist* topcoat!"

Fine, rain or shine!

The all wool fabric is woven in Scotland after our own famous formula. Our own anti-rain.

Already a "best-seller" -- our new Fall Tweed-loom* suits -- ideal for doctors -- or for anyone who is hard on his clothes.

Army 10-3 Bet to Whip Terriers

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 31. Boston University's grid squad arrived here today determined to handle every inch of the way in hopes of turning in one of the greatest football upsets of the year at the expense of West Point tomorrow afternoon.

The Cadets, however, refused to worry greatly over the outcome and the attitude of the coaches and players here is that they can take this game in stride while pointing for the Notre Dame clash next Saturday.

Paced by that brilliant backfield of Captain Jim Schwark, Art Frontczak, Woodrow Wilson and Charley Long, the Army will enter the game a 10 to 3 favorite to win.

START FIRST TEAM
There was some gossip to the effect that Coach Wood would start "shock" troops but he has definitely decided to start his regulars, and if the Terriers prove real hotshots, he will keep them in that.

Pat is depending entirely on the ability of his versatile backfield of Solly Nechem, Russ Lawry and Earle Crompton and George Ratcliffe.

If the Terrier line can stand up against the Army forward wall and enable the Scarlet and White backs to get started, lads like Nechem and Lawry will have a chance to shine.

CREMINS TO START
Coach Pat Haney has made only minute change and has decided to start Charley Cremins, a sophomore from Cambridge in place of Reggie Bernard, the Terrier veteran, who said he was definitely out with a bad knee.

Pollard to Call Jumbo Signals

Tufts left Medford at noon to draw bound for Williams and White the Jumbo battle Williams tomorrow afternoon.

Before leaving, Coach Lew Manly said that the fullback spot was the only position still in doubt. He was wondering whether to start Jim Woodson or Ben Peterson.

The quarterback post will be given to Dave Pollard rather than George Chris, but the latter is certain to see action, as he has fully recovered from his knee injury.

Huskies Take on Hawks

MANCHESTER, N. H., Oct. 31.

The Hawks of St. Anselm, flying high with an undefeated, untied, unscathed record, are highly favored to maintain their slate against Northeastern's crippled Huskies in a homecoming game here tomorrow.

Since both previous St. Anselm victories have been scored away from this city, one of the largest crowds in years is expected to greet Cleo O'Donnell's boys. This will be the fourth meeting between the schools, with Northeastern yet to win a game.

The Hawks, with victories over Providence and Brooklyn, expect stubborn opposition from Jimmy Dunn's club, especially through the air. Jim Connolly, well known to St. Anselm followers, will engineer the Husky attack, while Foxe Flanagan and Connie Sullivan will operate on the receiving end.

The Huskies have lost several key backfield men, including Hill Little and Bob Gurney, the two leading ball carriers, so Dunn is worried about his reserves. Northeastern's first team has its defense huddled around the sensational Arnold Kaufman at guard.

Revere, Somerville Play Under Lights

M'Manus Eleven Undefeated

Dilboy Field provides a potent appetizer for Saturday's schoolboy grid games as it furnishes the background tonight for the Revere-Somerville meeting—a formidable usher for the series of explosions bound to break out on local grid-irons.

Somerville has managed to keep among the undefeated teams in the state in its five games although three of these battles have ended deadlocked with the Red and Black refusing to be forced out of the exclusive class.

Even with Carl Lucas, ace back out with a knee injury, and Lenzo Ferrelli probably just for the rest of the season, the Art McManus' club still looks forward to a decisive victory over Revere in the final floodlight fray of the year.

The Beach Boys will field a light eleven that has been tossed around a bit in its games thus far, but has Saturday's victory taste may urge them on to another standstill for the Red and Black and possibly a win.

EXPECT LARGE CROWD

Faculty Manager Bob Buckley has made accommodations for one of the largest crowds of the year at Dilboy in hopes of a capacity house and the insurance of night grid games next season.

Saturday's spotlight turns directly on the Pearl Street Stadium, where undefeated but tied Malden stages a reception for an unbeaten Lowell, that will probably regret scheduling the Golden Tornado this season.

Coach Warren McGuirk, by no means over-confident of adding another victim to the fast-swelling list, is taking the Merrimac Valley foe as just another game to be played and won, if possible, to beat in his team's calendar.

"We have a lot of minor injuries that hurt our game," said Coach McGuirk, "but after all, who has Lowell whipped? We've been through a tough schedule and hope to take Tom Keady's eleven in stride."

STRONG BACKFIELD

The same group that started against Arlington will open the game against the speedy Lowell. Bruised Jackie Driscoll, Rupe Ray, Vin Dargie and Remo Verrengia will start in the backfield—a kick in every position—for the opponents.

Two Bobs, Jones and Cameron, will be on the wings with Breni Macy and Ralph Hatch at the tackles. Art Zampitelli has the call at center flanked by Normie Brown and Pat Darone.

Tom Keady has a pair of powerful offensive threats in Chris Zouk and Pete Koussalek who may cause a bit of unforeseen damage to the Golden Tornado.

But here's a vote to McGuirk and Malden and the first setback for Lowell on the records as a prediction.

At the Fulton st. grounds in another of Saturday's features, Denzie Gilead will be forced to use substitutes in place of three of his first stringers against Medford in the annual tussle.

Capt. Fred DelVisco, tackle and backer Jack Comerford and Vic Flinn have been sidelined by injuries and will not see action against the Mystics.

Bulldogs to Test Out H. C. Backfield

WORCESTER, Oct. 21—Final preparations for one of the best games of the football season here were on the bill for Holy Cross gridmen as the team awaited the invasion of the mighty Georgia Bulldogs, unbeaten and untied in four games.

The Team of a Thousand Backs, as Georgia has been nicknamed, arrived here from Athens, Georgia, this morning and after resting and relaxing was to go through a practice session here on Fitton Field.

Last year the Bulldogs came here and lost by 7 to 6, but the players said today they are confident they will reverse that decision.

PURPLE IN SHAPE

A lightning fast backfield, including Harry Stevens and Vaseo Cate, champion sprinter Billy Hise, Bill Honeycutt, Jim Fordham, and other talented ball carriers and passers, is working back of a big line for Georgia.

In their four games so far they were only pushed by South Carolina and managed to win that test.

Holy Cross, badly used up in losing to Carnegie Tech by a point last week, is back in good shape, but whether there will be a letdown after that event remains to be seen.

The new crack backfield unit of Rigo LaTanzl, quarterbacking for Henry Giardi, Ronnie Cahill, and Hilary Rens at fullback (Capt. Bill Osmanski) is still nursing bruises) has appeared competent in practice here this week.

PITTSBURGH METHODIST: The original roots of the robes were set in the Texas cattle drives along the historic Chisholm trail from the cow-country to Dallas. In those carefree days the longhorn heaves ran wild on the "lone prairie" and didn't fetch $2.00 on the hoof. Nowadays you can buy a beefsteak large as a postage stamp for that sum. South-Meth to pay the dinner check, Pitt to feed free.

Rum Pot; Pater-filius, Sin

AMHERST-WESLEYAN: A Revolutionary rum-pot named Lord Geoffrey Amherst is being kept alive in a college song as "A Soldier of the King." A surreal portrait of the bewigged, scarlet-coated old time-jaicer hangs outside the college's inn, showing a bulbous-nosed and rheumy-eyed souse. The Amherst boys sing a tongue-in-the-cheek ballad which goes, "To the Frenchmen and the Indians he didn't do a thing," implying inferential mincemeat. Amherst to do plenty tomorrow.

BROWN-RHODE ISLAND STATE: The only two coach-father and player-son combinations in college football face each other in annual droves of fine young men with football records established in annual schools, using them for four years of football and then, upon graduation, or not long after graduation, permitting them to resign from the service. It blew a sanctified hiss of purity at Princeton. One rousing rah for sin and sympathy for purity.

Last 'Cav' Star Still Shooting

By BILL CORUM

Ned Irish, who conducts the service bureau of the National Football League, writes in to say he doesn't think it fair to compare Chick Harley and Red Grange with "modern all-around football players."

Ned tempers this harsh opinion by admitting that he never saw Harley. But ignorance is no excuse in the eyes of the law, and a fellow who knows as much about college athletics as Irish should know about Harley.

Chick was about as all-around as football players come, Ned. He punned, passed, ran, defended, called signals.

No nearer thing to a one-man eleven ever ghettoed over crossbars than the slant mouthed kid in Ohio's Scarlet and Gray.

UNCANNY "SOMETHING"

For the red head... well, he was basically a runner. And yet his memory seems to tell me that when the best of his running days were over he was better than a bad blocker, backer-up of the line, and catcher in that league which you represent.

These two lads—Grange and Harley—must have had something else, something not only to make people remember them but also to make you cherish the memory of the things they saw them do.

Something that most of the "modern all-around stars" lack. Possibly they came along at just the right time in the development of present-day college football to catch and clinch the fancy of the public.

Take our own private hero, Ned, the New York Giants' remarkable Ed Danowski. I doubt the old pro pitcher from Riverhead, L. I., will leave any such sharply etched memories behind when he "hangs 'em up."

But we know, and the figures show, that "Big Ed" has been better than a bad hand as an all-around footballer. He's the kind of guy to have back there when you've got to have a guy back there, isn't he?

GRUFF, KIND, VHEPHER

He was the same with Fordham, once he recovered from stage-fright and shyness. Possibly not even you knew that Danowski at most gave up football once because he was so shy.

One of the kindest students of human nature I ever knew, and one of the kindest and softest of men under a gruff exterior, saved Danowski just when he was ready to turn in his Fordham suit and slip quietly back to the familiar potato fields.

Ed was just two shy and ill at ease to play with his fellow Fordhamers even in practice. He would put on a suit and then drift off into a corner of the field and watch proceedings from afar. Until his eyesight began to fail, however, nothing escaped Frank Cavanaugh. Cavanaugh could almost tell what the big gawky country kid was thinking. Which was in effect:

"What am I doing here on this great football squad with a famous coach, and a half dozen assistants? I'll never be good enough to play with these fellows."

It was all so strange, and Big Ed was so bashful that he was ready to chuck the whole show, school and all, when Cav out-guessed him and started him on the way to stardom.

CAV'S KEEN STRATEGY

Carefully picking the hour when there were just the right number of sympathetic souls in his private dressing room, the Iron Maior sent for Danowski to come and see him.

The large Edward was so upset by this unexpected summons that his tap on the door was almost too weak to be heard.

"Come in, Eddie," said Cav, and went on dressing and talking to Hiker Joy and his other assistants.

Danowski stood there, wondering. "Sit down, Eddie," said Cav, and continued to talk some more about this and that, and everything.

MAJOR KINDLES SPARK

Finally, Cav was fully dressed. His stage was set.

He lighted a cigarette, and leaned back, and there was silence in the room.

"Danowski," said Cavanaugh, "They're trying to do a terrible thing to you up here. They're trying to take that scholarship away from you. They don't believe in you. They don't think you've got it."

"You've got some kid brothers back home, haven't you?" Danowski gulped and said he had.

"Well, it's going to be tough explaining to them when you go back, isn't it? I'll bet they've been around telling all the kids in the neighborhood that their brother, Ed, was going to play for Fordham."

"There isn't any doubt that you're their hero. It'll be tough sitting at home at dinner with the kids looking at you. It'll be tough sitting there saying to yourself: 'Those people at Fordham were right. I haven't got it.'"

"ONE WHO BELIEVES"

"But there's one fellow up here who believes in you, Ed. There's one fellow knows those guys are wrong. I believe in you, and this is my football team. I'll be seeing you on the field in a little while."

That was the afternoon that Ed Danowski was moved into the first string backfield at Fordham, and he's been going along pretty good ever since. He'll probably do all right against the Dodgers at the Polo Grounds Sunday, too.

Ask him about Cav some time, Ned.

L. S. U. Coach Signs 3-Year Contract

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 21 (INS)—Louisiana State University's head football coach, Bernie Moore, held a renewed three-year contract today, but the terms, like those of his previous agreements with the university, remained undisclosed. Moore's present contract expires on the first of next year, and under the new agreement, he will continue as Tiger mentor through the 1942 season.

The popular grid coach's salary is variously rumored from $10,000 to $12,000. He started out as head coach at $7,000 with L. S. U. in 1935, but was a line coach here before that time. He coached at Sewanee and Mercer before coming to L. S. U.

CLEMSON 34, S. C. 12

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 21 (INS)—Their 36th game in a long gridiron rivalry today left Clemson victor for the fifth successive year over South Carolina by a score of 34 to 12.

He turned into the infield and coasted to a stop, then loosened his safety belt and sprang out with his clothes astir.

Taken to a hospital, he was reported in "uncertain" condition with critical burns of the head, arm, and body.

Kitchener Kids Greatest Line—Ross

Schmidt Brings Joy To Pilot

HERSHEY, Pa., Oct. 21—"Every time I see Schmidt score a goal I think my lucky stars. I listened to Bobby Bauer and Porky Dumart one day a couple of years ago," declared Manager Art Ross of the Bruins as he sent the Bruins through their training paces here this morning.

"You know," continued the Bruins maestro, "Bobby and Porky deserve a lot of credit for getting that Kitchener Kid line together. We signed Dumart and Bauer first. Porky was playing defense and Bobby wing for Kitchener-Waterloo. Schmidt was playing center for the same club, but weighed only 120 pounds the first time I saw him.

"I didn't think he'd ever weigh enough for big league hockey. But almost from the instant they joined us," he continued, "Dumart and Bauer kept pestering me to sign Schmidt, too. They finally kept after me until I capitulated and decided to give Milt a tryout.

TOOK ON WEIGHT

"When Schmidt reported that fall I knew I hadn't made any mistake in listening to Porky and Bobby. Milt weighed 160 by this time and it was not long before he had added 10 more pounds and the Kitchener line was under way. I'll match it against any line in hockey today."

The Kitchener Kids really look like the Cooke-Boucher or any other famous wags during the scrimmage seasons here. They're pouring goals into the opposing nets like rain drops.

"We've got to win that opener in Toronto," declared little Bobby Bauer, spokesman for the inseparable trio. "We're been listening all summer to nothing but that kicking we took in the Stanley Cup and, we may as well start rubbing out that stigma right away."

Tech Harriers Race Yale Squad

The victory of the M. I. T. cross-country team over Massachusetts State has encouraged Coach Oscar Heidlund's charges. They hope to outrun the Yale hill and dale team in a dual meet at New Haven tomorrow.

The meet will be a prelude to the final meets of the year in dual competition, those with B. U. and Northeastern, both scheduled for Franklin Park.

Horse Laugh

Seabiscuit has just finished telling repressess, Victoria Boney, how he will defeat War Admiral in long deferred match race at Pimlico, Nov. 1, not knowing the Admiral was listening in all the time. Evidently he doesn't believe it.

Record Entry For Horse Show

The 11th annual Boston Horse Show which opens next Thursday night at Commonwealth Armory, shapes up as the best of the series of brilliant exhibitions conducted by the 110th Cavalry.

After a slow start, the entry list began to soar early this week and probably will reach record-breaking proportions by tomorrow night, when the final tabulation will take place.

Martha B. Moor, pride of Worcester, will show the saddle mare Sadie Peavine and the saddle pony Broadway Blossom, in addition to her well-known grey gelding, Silverdare. Miss Moor has made ten entries altogether.

From Wethersfield, Ct., will come a pair of saddle mares, Ariadne and Hit Parade, owned jointly by Mrs. C. F. Cunningham and Miss June Cunningham.

Margaret Lorenz, of West Hartford, Ct., will show the saddler M. Golden Bonnie.

Mrs. Henry S. Hall, Jr., of Cambridge and the Millwood Hunt, whose daughter, Edith, won the Good Hands Trophy at last year's show, have entered the hunters Glenny Lad and Merrydale. Herbert B. Shaw of Boston and Dedham Hunt will ride Malow.

Frank C. Dunlap, Plymouth's leading horseman, will exhibit his pair of sterling hunters, Loose Manners and Gaudette.

spectacle today of tickets at a premium and a near capacity crowd probable.

Winning new public favor with each week's defeat, Crimson followers really believe today that their team can slam Dartmouth, favored at 2 to 1.

Great backs, and a line gaining polish with each victory give Earl Blake's Dartmouth its taper superiority. Capt. Bob MacLeod, Colby Howe, Bill Hutchinson and the rest of the ball carriers are high pressure operatives who should, if past performances mean a thing, gallop to a two or three touchdown margin.

But as week after week has shown this year, with favorites kicked silly in every quarter, paper predictions and experts' wordy calculations don't mean much when a tough, game team coached as shrewdly as Dick Harlow's steps in and gambles.

HARVARD TO GAMBLE

And you may be sure Harvard will gamble tomorrow against these unbeaten and untied Indians, who have carried a victory tradition since early 1936 when Dartmouth last lost, to Holy Cross.

For the first time this year Harvard has nearly full strength available, and a little depth gained from use of second stringers in three testing games.

Very likely Harlow will start a backfield of Austin Harding (spelled by Frank Foley), Torb Macdonald, Cliff Wilson and Ben Smith. He could start Bob James, Bob Burnett, Chief Boston and Joe Gardella, and have a pretty fair four in there—maybe only a shade lack of the first group.

And the Harvard starting line promises Dartmouth backs a busy session—the same line that started against Army—Capt. Bob Green and Don Daughters, ends; Ken Booth and Tom Healey, tackles; Nick Mellen and Dave Glueck or Bill Coleman, guards, and Tim Russell, center.

RESERVES READY

Your Dartmouth line? Whit Miller and Jim Parks, ends; Jim Feeley and Larry Dilkes, tackles; Gus Zitrides and Lou Young, guards, and Red Gibson, center.

No one could ask a better blocking offensive line, when in stride, than that Dartmouth seven, but defensively, many a coach would give a lot for the Harvard bunch.

Both teams have some reserves ready, but the starting team plus the extra backs are due to see the bulk of work, barring injuries.

Harvard has a big mental advantage, getting ready for Dartmouth. It hasn't anything to lose and naturally isn't overconfident. The Green, contrariwise, has a perfect record to lose, and the team certainly has appeared highly confident, according to Hanover spies.

Strife these two into a football broth tomorrow at the Stadium and watch it boil. A great dish. Crimson-hued, will be the result.
